IN THIS SPECIAL ISSUE:

ACHIEVEMENTS AND CHALLENGES AT SOUTH AFRICAN BIENNIALS

The critical role of rabbis, the renewed spirit of Zionism and support for Progressive Judaism in Israel, and the adoption of a new siddur for the country's congregations were among the highlights of the June 13-15 biennial conference of the South African Union for Progressive Judaism in Cape Town.

REPORT BY RABBI JOEL OSERAN, WORLD UNION VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, ON HIS VISIT TO SOUTH AFRICA, JUNE 11-18, 2008

I just returned to Israel from an exhilarating nine-day visit to Cape Town and Johannesburg, South Africa, where I participated in two regional conferences for our movement – those of the South African Union of Temple Sisterhoods (SAUTS) and the South African Union for Progressive Judaism (SAUPJ).
